

LATEST NEWS FROM ICSA

Successful Meeting between ICSA and ICSAN

Published on Tuesday 02, August 2011

A senior delegation of members of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries of Nigeria (ICSAN) met Honorary Officers and an executive team from ICSA on Thursday, 21 July 2011 at the Institute's international Headquarters in London. The Nigerian delegation comprised Mr. Olatunde-Busari, President of ICSAN, Past President Mr. Hakeem D. Ogunniran, Past President Mr. Nosike Agokei, and ICSAN Registrar and Chief Executive, Mr. Dele Togunde.

The ICSA representatives included ICSA UK President Mr. Martin Jacob, International immediate Past President Mr. Andy Cowe, International Past President Mr. Gavin Downs, Clerk to Council Russell Morrice and other members of the Senior Management Executive team.

The meeting explored how to further develop relations between the Nigerian Institute and ICSA to the mutual benefit of both Institutes. The long historical ties between both bodies were noted. The Nigerian delegation emphasised the need to understand the "Nigerian context" for ICSA's policies and activities in Nigeria.

The opportunities and importance of mutual recognition were confirmed and it was agreed that both Institutes would work together on developing opportunities for members and students of both bodies and explore joint collaboration on leadership in governance.